Columbia County Facts

Columbia County is the “bedroom community” of our area. Attracted by one of the best public school systems in Georgia and its beautiful rolling hills, it has become the county of choice for homeowners. Its progressive government and good management has kept its tax rate competitive with other highly developed counties. It has great recreational attractions in Clark Hill Lake, the Savannah River, and terrific public facilities. Land prices in this county tend to be the highest of all surrounding counties.
